There were 6,958 non-traffic cases filed in the Fourth Judicial District during fiscal year 2014. Of those, less than 43 percent were criminal cases, more than 30 percent were civil cases, less than 21 percent were family cases, and 6 percent were juvenile cases. There were 6,531 non-traffic cases disposed during the fiscal year. The Fourth Judicial District also reported 17,659 filings and 16,322 dispositions for traffic and parking cases.

The standard measure of court performance is the clearance rate, which is calculated by dividing the number of dispositions by the number of filings and multiplying by 100. The clearance rate for non-traffic cases in the Fourth Judicial District was 94 percent. The clearance rate for traffic cases was 92 percent.

The five-year trends for total non-traffic filings and dispositions in the Fourth Judicial District's courts are shown in the chart below.
